Call for Candidates to Serve on a Local Professional Development Sub-Committee

Please complete and return the lower portion of this form listing names, district and current teaching assignment of one or more pre-school through twelfth grade teachers and administrators who you feel would be good candidates for service on a Hancock County Local Professional Development Sub-Committee.

Sub-Committee members will be responsible for reviewing educators' Individual Professional Development Plans. The Sub-Committees meet a maximum of four times per year.

Candidates may be nominated by colleagues (please clear nomination of a colleague with him/her prior to nomination) or may be self-nominated.

Qualifications:

1. At least two years teaching or administrative experience
2. Employed full-time by a school district in the Hancock County LPDC Consortium
3. An interest in professional development

Return the lower portion to the Hancock County Local Professional Development Committee, Hancock County Educational Service Center, 7746 CR 140, Findlay, 45840.
